HELP STOP THE CANADIAN SEAL SLAUGHTER!

In 2009, three-fourths of the nearly 300,000 harp seals slated to be killed were spared, in part because the price of seal fur has plummeted as the international outrage against the slaughter rises. Often, babies who are just weeks old have their skulls smashed in or are shot and then skinned for their fur. There is no larger massacre of marine mammals on Earth! Please sign this petition asking the Canadian government to ban this bloody and gruesome slaughter once and for all.
