YOU CAN SAVE THE LIVES OF MORE THAN 100 ANIMALS EVERY YEAR BY GOING VEGAN

When you eat flesh, you're eating the corpse of a tortured, terrified victim who didn't want to die—period. What does that sound like to you? That's right—something a zombie would do. Now, zombies aren't exactly known for their ability to think critically, but thankfully, we're here to help. It's easy to neutralize the zombie virus that's infecting your body as you read this. Just start thinking for yourself and stop eating flesh—go vegan.

On today's factory farms, chickens and turkeys have their throats cut while they're still conscious, piglets are castrated and have their tails cut off without being given any painkillers, and cows are hung upside down and are often skinned while they're still able to feel pain. On the decks of fishing boats, fish suffocate or are cut open while they're still alive.

By going vegan, you can save more than 100 animals from this cruelty every year.
